Dear NBCDI Family,

The National Black Child Development Institute (NBCDI) welcomes you to join us for our 49th Annual Conference in the windy city: Chicago, IL! We promise you an unforgettable experience that includes capacity building, networking, affirmation, celebration of Black scholarship and excellence, dialogue, strategizing, planning and lastly, but importantly, rejuvenation and self-care. For 49 years, we have intentionally aligned the content of our conference with our mission and focused on amplifying, reinforcing and advocating to improve and advance the quality of life for Black children and families. While we gather to elevate excellence, we also bring analysis, critique and action planning to reverse systems that endanger, instead of advance our children and families.

NBCDI’s annual conference is the only convening of its kind in the United States. NBCDI brings together the entire ecosystem that impacts Black children and families. Annually, the conference brings together more than 1,000 educators, school district leaders, policy makers, elected officials, parents, healthcare professionals, clergy, nonprofit and social service agency staff and leaders, local businesses and corporate leaders to focus not only on the unique challenges facing Black children and communities, but also to highlight their successes, resilience, assets and strength.

As we gather to celebrate Black excellence, we would be remiss if we did not acknowledge how far we have come. This year, 2019, marks 400 years since the first of our enslaved ancestors reached the shores of Jamestown, VA. As we recognize the full scope of our journey, I believe we have much to celebrate.

We have designed this year’s conference experience, “Transforming Communities for Our Children” just for you. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago!

In anticipation,

ABOUT NBCDI

For 49 years, the National Black Child Development Institute (NBCDI) has been committed to our mission to improve and advance the quality of life for Black children and families through education and advocacy. With our National Affiliate Network, we develop and deliver strengths-based, culturally-relevant, evidence-based and trauma-informed curricula and programs that focus on health and wellness, family engagement and literacy. We also support increased access to effective education by providing professional development scholarships for early childhood educators. NBCDI, the National Affiliate Network and our members advocate and inform education policies at the federal, state and local levels to ensure standards, regulations and resource allocations to support equitable systems for Black children and families.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS (CEUs)

George Mason University will provide Continuing Education Units (CEUs) to NBCDI conference participants who apply. The fee is $30.00. Interested conference participants must pick up a CEU form from the Conference Registration Desk and submit it to George Mason University, with payment, following the conference.
CONFEREE HIGHLIGHTS

Promoting Healthy Practices in Early Childhood:
Good for Me! Facilitators Training
Saturday, September 28
10:00 AM—12:00 PM
(Registration Required)

NBCDI’s Good for Me! Facilitators Training is an engaging, interactive workshop, designed to equip program facilitators with the knowledge and skills required to implement the Good for Me! program with early childhood education programs and schools in their communities. The training will focus on culturally-relevant STEM activities, as well as recipes included in the Good for Me! Curriculum and recipe book, which supports the at-home component of the curriculum by helping families make healthy food together while celebrating their heritage.

Evelyn K. Moore Early Childhood Leadership Institute
Saturday, September 29
12:00 PM—3:00 PM

This session will engage participants in an in-depth discussion about the state of the early childhood workforce and why it is critically important to have a workforce that is well-trained, educated, and compensated for Black children. What does it take to have a workforce that creates affirming, culturally-responsive and rich environments for African American children? What do credential requirements look like for early education leaders and educators caring and teaching African American children? What does professional learning and coaching look like for early education leaders and educators caring and teaching African American children? Finally, we will end with reflections and a roadmap from two prominent early education experts focused on programming and policy.

Opening Plenary featuring a 2020 Census Mayoral Roundtable
Saturday, September 28
3:30 PM—6:00 PM

The National Black Child Development Institute will open its 49th Annual Conference with a BANG! Please join us for a POWERful first. The Opening Plenary will feature a keynote address from one of our nation’s most engaging and transformative leaders who will then lead leaders from diverse communities for a special panel discussion focused on an issue and opportunity that will impact our communities for the next decade and beyond. Failure to accurately count Black children and families can be devastating for our communities; diminishing resources for education, healthcare, nutrition programs and housing.

Legacy Voices Seminar
Sunday, September 29
1:15 PM—3:15 PM

Join the National Black Child Development Institute’s Council of Elders, including our six 2018 inductees, for the Legacy Voices Seminar. The Elders will continue their tradition of grounding us in NBCDI’s history and aligning our history with our current work. The NBCDI Council of Elders use the African tradition of oral storytelling, engaging presentations and dialogue to inform and inspire. Plan to join us as we sit at the feet of our elders and learn from them. You will never forget your first Legacy Voices Seminar.

NBCDI Town Hall Special Event
Monday, September 30
10:15 AM—12:30 PM

NBCDI launched the Delivering on the Promise of Effective Early Childhood Education campaign to end suspensions and expulsions in early childhood education in 2017. While 23 states have passed legislation to ban or limit suspensions and expulsions in early childhood education, NBCDI will continue to advocate until all states ban suspensions and expulsions for young children. This special event will be NBCDI’s first town hall focused on Black girls. Black girls are suspended or expelled at higher rates than all other groups, including Black boys. Our keynote address will be delivered by one of our country’s most dynamic voices, followed by a town hall and bootcamp organized by state. Arrive early for pre-session dialogue with peers from your home state.

Morning Rejuvenation with Celebrity Trainer Scott Parker

Sunday, September 29—
Tuesday, October 1
6:30 AM—7:30 AM

There is no better way to start your day than with a “good” morning workout. Plan to start every morning with celebrity trainer, Scott Parker. Scott is the founder and CEO of TruResults, a personal fitness company specializing in holistic approaches to create and maintain a healthy mind, body and soul. Established in 2006, the TruResults workout system does not require the use of traditional gym or any other equipment. TruResults has attracted many celebrity clients, including Tasha Smith, Jill Scott, David Banner and more.

NBCDI 49th Annual Conference Closing Luncheon

Tuesday, October 1
12:30 PM—2:30 PM

This year’s Closing Luncheon will leave conferees rejuvenated, fired up and ready to lead the charge as we prepare to celebrate NBCDI’s 50th Anniversary in 2020. Our plenary will feature a powerful and prophetic voice. Come and meet NBCDI’s 50th Anniversary Planning Committee and learn more about our special plans for our 50th Anniversary.
Mobile Workshop
Social-Emotional Symposium for Early Childhood Educators
University of Illinois at Chicago
Saturday, September 28
8:30 AM—Bus Departs Hotel
11:30 AM—Approximate Return to Hotel
Free Event (Registration Required)

NBCDI invites conferees to join us as we directly engage with early childhood educators from diverse Chicago neighborhoods through our partnership with one of Chicago’s preeminent early care and education and child care resource and referral organizations, Illinois Action for Children (Action). Celebrating 50-years of service, Action is hosting a Social-Emotional Symposium. Joy Thomas Moore, author of The Power of Presence and mother of the author Wes Moore, will serve as keynote speaker and moderate a reaction panel. The reaction panel will take a deep dive into issues of immigration, learning and gender bias, trauma-informed classroom training, and pre-school expulsion. The symposium theme this year will focus on diversity and equity.

Mobile Worship Experience
Trinity United Church of Christ
Sunday, September 29
10:30 AM— Bus Departs Hotel
1:45 PM—Approximate Return Time to Hotel
Free Event (Registration Required)

The Black church has historically been one of the most significant institutions in the Black community and Chicago is home to one of the nation’s foremost. Join NBCDI for an unforgettable mobile worship experience at Trinity United Church of Christ. Founded in 1961, Trinity United Church of Christ stands in the proud tradition of the United Church of Christ denomination with its emphasis on social justice.

In alignment with the church’s commitment to social justice and to the advancement of Black communities and families, Trinity United Church of Christ is home to child care centers that serve more than 130 children every day. In fact, Trinity United Church of Christ’s Child Care Centers were featured as a National Black Child Development Institute Point of Proof, best practice, in “NBCDI’s Being Black Is Not a Risk Factor – Illinois” publication because of its commitment to excellence.

NBCDI’s senior leadership and board of directors invite you to join us we hear a powerful message from the Reverend Dr. Otis Moss, III and fellowship with the members of Trinity UCC. The Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III is the Senior Pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ. Pastor Moss is one of the new generation of ministers committed to prophetically preaching the message that love and justice, which form the foundation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are inseparable companions.

NBCDI will join the Trinity UCC and Reverend Dr. Otis Moss, III for their 11:00 AM worship experience. Bus transportation will be provided and requires advance registration.

How to Register for FREE Mobile Events:

• If you have already registered for the NBCDI Conference and would like to register for a mobile workshop, please send an email to conference@nbcdi.org and provide your name as well as which mobile event you would like to sign up for. You will receive an email confirmation once you have been registered.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2019
FROM 7:00 AM - 11:00 AM AT JACKSON PARK
The Chicago Half Marathon & 5K is centered around Chicago’s historic Jackson Park, once home to the 1893 World Columbian Exposition. The course highlights Chicago’s historic south shore and features a traffic-free Lake Shore Drive—the only Chicago race to completely shut down this main transportation artery.

Edgewater Arts Festival SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28 - 29, 2019 at Granville Between Broadway and Sheridan.
At Edgewater Artists in Motion, we do our best to celebrate local art and artists all year long. Sometimes, however, it’s necessary to put on an event that will really attract attention. If you're an art lover in the Chicago area, the Edgewater Arts Festival is an event to watch this fall. This art festival is a great way to be introduced to new artists and for new artists to show off their latest works.

Chicago Gourmet FRIDAY THROUGH SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27 - 29, 2019 AT MILLENIUM PARK
Chicago Gourmet offers premium food and wine events, with the main weekend events showcasing hundreds of restaurant chefs, vintners and breweries in Millennium Park.
